

COMMUNITY FOUNDATION OF BOONE COUNTY 2021 Competitive Grant Guidelines

History and Mission

The Community Foundation of Boone County (CFBC) was founded in 1991 with gifts from individuals, families, businesses, organizations and a series of matching grants from a Lilly Endowment initiative, Giving Indiana Funds for Tomorrow (GIFT). CFBC's mission is uniting people, organizations and philanthropy to create a thriving community for all. We accomplish our mission by accepting gifts for endowment, investing them and awarding grants from the investment income.

Purpose

All grants awarded by the CFBC are to improve the quality of life in Boone County, Indiana by contributing to the development of each community and enabling citizens to reach their full untapped potential.

The purpose of these grant guidelines is to help applicants understand CFBC'S funding fields of interest, award sizes and types of grants, applicant eligibility, proposal requirements, deadlines and timelines, as well as expectations for final reporting.

All applicants should read these guidelines in their entirety before applying for a grant; in turn, we pledge to read all qualified proposals in their entirety.

What CFBC Funds

Generally, grants are made to support the following fields of interest:

- Arts and Culture - Efforts that enhance and support the development of quality programming and services through visual art, literature, music, theatre, film and dance etc. throughout Boone County.
- Community Development - Efforts that build stronger communities that take collective action and generate solutions to common problems; including economic, social, workforce, animal welfare, environmental and cultural change.
- Education - Efforts that provide educational opportunities that lead to successful and lasting outcomes for Boone County residents from birth through adulthood including special consideration for adult literacy.
- Elderly- Efforts that enrich the lives of older adults.
- Health and Human Services - Efforts that ensure Boone County residents are healthy and well.
- Youth Development - Efforts that help youth ages birth to 18 years old; including special consideration for economically disadvantaged youth.
